Venture STRATEGIC

PREPARED FOR THE MESA WATER DISTRICT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

November 3, 2026 General Election

Results and turnout in the Mesa Water District service area

Unofficial results as of the Orange County Registrar of Voters update of Monday, November 9, 2026, 5:00 p.m. Counting continues through certification on or before December 3.

WHERE THE COUNT STANDS

Orange County has counted 1.06 million ballots; about 117,000 remain

1,060,431

ballots counted countywide (55.3% of 1,916,510 registered voters), after 55,581 were added Nov 9

116,660

ballots still to process as of Nov 9: about 87,900 mail ballots received by Election Day, 20,900 late-arriving, 7,000 conditional registrations. Next update Nov 10, 5 p.m.

Dec 3

Registrar certification deadline. State certifies Dec 11. Mail postmarked by Election Day counts if received by Nov 10.

Margins in close races can still move. Every number in this deck is unofficial and will be replaced by certified results in December.

RACES OF INTEREST

Five races of interest and/or undecided

Costa Mesa Council District 3. Cara Stewart 50.01%, Daniel Morgan 49.99%. Morgan led by 38 on Nov 7; Stewart retook the lead by a single vote Nov 9. A recount is likely.

1,383

Assembly District 72 (open seat). Gracey Van Der Mark (R) 50.34%, Chris Kluwe (D) 49.66%. Kluwe led on election night; the gap narrowed Nov 9. Too close to call.

6,535

State Senate District 36. Chris Duncan (D) 50.9% leads incumbent Tony Strickland (R) 49.1% districtwide. Strickland leads the Orange County portion 50.4% to 49.6%; Los Angeles County supplies Duncan's margin. Not called.

9,679

Supervisor District 5. Katrina Foley (D), incumbent, 52.16%, Diane Dixon (R) 47.84%. Leading, not called; the margin has grown in every update.

5,147

Supervisor District 4 (open seat). Connor Traut (D) 51.69%, Tim Shaw (R) 48.31%. Leading; the lead has changed hands twice and grew by 1,442 on Nov 9.

Also leading but not yet called: Costa Mesa Mayor Mike Buley by 2,120 votes (53.45% to 46.55%).

PART ONE

Turnout

National, California, Orange County, and the Mesa Water District service area

TURNOUT · UNITED STATES

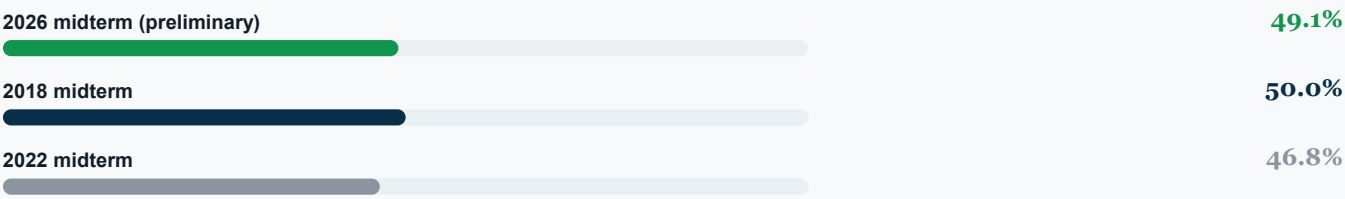

The second-highest midterm turnout in more than a century of eligible voters cast a ballot (University of Florida Election Lab estimate, Nov 7; the Nov 4 preliminary was 49.4%). The Washington Post reports 49%, the second-highest midterm rate since 1914.

49.1%

124 M+

ballots cast nationwide, a record for a midterm in raw votes. 2022: 46.8% of eligible voters. 2018: 50.0%, the modern high.

TURNOUT · CALIFORNIA

On track for the most ballots ever cast in a California governor's race

23,273,590

registered voters, a record (Secretary of State 15-day Report of Registration, Oct 19, 2026)

11.3 M counted

ballots processed statewide as of Nov 9 (48.4% of registered), with about 2.4 million still to process. If all are counted, turnout lands near 59% of registered voters.

Registration by party, statewide

Democratic	45.0%	10,464,099
Republican	24.7%	5,746,921
No Party Preference	23.0%	5,357,086
Other parties	7.3%	1,705,484

Democrats 45.0%, Republicans 24.7%, No Party Preference 23.0%. The Secretary of State does not publish turnout by party before certification.

PART TWO

Congressional seat

The 42nd District, as redrawn under Proposition 50: Mesa Water's entire service area is represented by Rep. Robert Garcia

CONGRESS · 42ND DISTRICT

Robert Garcia re-elected in the redrawn coastal 42nd

Orange County portion of CD 42 (OC Registrar GIS, district lines as of Aug 13, 2026). The Long Beach and Los Angeles County portion is not shown.

The new 42nd runs down the coast from Long Beach through Seal Beach, Huntington Beach and Costa Mesa to part of Newport Beach. Mesa Water's core service area sits in this district beginning January 2027.

Robert Garcia (D) 164,328 — 100,662 Brian Burley (R)

62.0% | 38.0%

Districtwide, CA Secretary of State, Nov 9, 7:18 p.m. Called by AP at 9:48 p.m. PT on election night.

Orange County portion only: Garcia 78,961 (50.63%) to Burley 77,002 (49.37%). The Los Angeles County portion supplies the margin. Mesa Water's entire service area is in this district.

CONGRESS · 42ND DISTRICT

Democrats lead registration districtwide; Republicans hold the OC-portion plurality

Registration by party, CD 42 (entire district)

Democratic	40.7%	195,359
Republican	29.9%	143,599
No Party Preference	21.6%	103,433
Other parties	7.8%	37,574

CA Secretary of State, Report of Registration, Oct 19, 2026. Orange County portion: 276,554 (57.6%); Los Angeles County: 203,411 (42.4%).

Turnout

CD 42 districtwide, ballots counted Nov 9 — 55.2%

264,990 of 479,965 registered

Orange County portion, ballots counted Nov 9 — 58.5%

161,813 of 276,530 registered

Democratic (62,830 of 89,308) — 70.4%

Republican (73,068 of 108,580) — 67.3%

No Party Preference (30,014 of 58,601) — 51.2%

Mesa Water District lies entirely within CD 42: its 61,563 registered voters are 12.8% of the district and 22.3% of the Orange County portion; 33,341 Mesa Water ballots counted (54.2%). Party bars: OC portion only.

PART THREE

Board of Supervisors

Fifth District (Mesa Water's district) and the open Fourth District, which together decide the board's majority

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS · FIFTH DISTRICT

Katrina Foley leads Diane Dixon by 9,679 votes in a Republican-registration district

Fifth Supervisorial District (OC Registrar GIS, 2026 lines). Costa Mesa and Newport Beach, Mesa Water's service area, sit at the district's northwest corner.

The Fifth District covers the coast and south county: Costa Mesa, Newport Beach, Laguna Beach, most of Irvine, Laguna Hills, Laguna Niguel, Laguna Woods, Aliso Viejo, Lake Forest, Mission Viejo, Rancho Santa Margarita, Dana Point, San Juan Capistrano and San Clemente.

Katrina Foley (D), incumbent — 116,973

107,294 Diane Dixon (R)

OC Registrar, Nov 9. Not called; Foley's lead has widened in every update since election night (51.6% Wednesday, 52.0% Nov 7, 52.2% now).

If Foley holds, Democrats keep a 3 to 2 board majority regardless of District 4. Dixon vacates Assembly District 72, where her successor is still undecided.

Sources: OC Registrar (ocvote.gov) Run 14 (Nov 9); Voice of OC, Nov 4 and Nov 6; Supervisor Foley's office (district cities).

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS · FIFTH DISTRICT

A 21,000-voter Republican registration edge; Democrats returning at 71%, Republicans at 68%

Registration by party, Supervisorial District 5

Democratic	32.8%	143,296
Republican	37.6%	164,346
No Party Preference	22.3%	97,653
Other parties	7.3%	31,681

OC Registrar, Nov 2, 2026. Republicans 37.6%, Democrats 32.8%, No Party Preference 22.3%.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS · FOURTH DISTRICT

Open seat: Traut leads Shaw by 5,147

Fourth Supervisorial District (OC Registrar GIS, 2026 lines).

The Fourth District is north county: Brea, Buena Park, Fullerton, La Habra, Placentia, Stanton and most of Anaheim outside Anaheim Hills. Supervisor Doug Chaffee is termed out.

Connor Traut (D) 78,592 — 73,445 Tim Shaw (R)

51.7%	48.3%

OC Registrar, Nov 9. Traut led election night, Shaw led Wednesday morning, Traut retook the lead Wednesday evening and has widened it since (3,705 on Nov 7, 5,147 now).

Traut is Mayor of Buena Park; Shaw is an OC Board of Education trustee and former La Habra councilmember. A Shaw win would still leave the board 3 to 2 Democratic if Foley holds.

Sources: OC Registrar (ocvote.gov) Run 14 (Nov 9); Voice of OC, Nov 4; LAist, Nov 6; Supervisor Chaffee's office (district cities).

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS · FOURTH DISTRICT

Democratic registration advantage of 11 points, but the lowest turnout in every party

Registration by party, Supervisorial District 4

Democratic	40.6%	141,323
Republican	29.7%	103,413
No Party Preference	23.7%	82,527

PART FOUR

Costa Mesa

Mayor and Council Districts 3, 4 and 5: every seat on the ballot was open

COSTA MESA · MAYOR AND COUNCIL

A substantially new council: Buley leads for Mayor, two seats decided, District 3 separated by one vote

Costa Mesa council districts (OC Registrar GIS, 2026 lines). Shaded districts were on the 2026 ballot: D3 Stewart leads by one vote, D4 Andrade Vallarta, D5 Brown. The Mayor is elected citywide to a two-year term. Gray outlines are neighboring cities.

Mayor John Stephens was termed out. Councilmembers Mike Buley (District 1) and Loren Gameros (District 2) ran against each other for Mayor. If Buley is sworn in as Mayor, his District 1 seat becomes vacant and the council can fill it by appointment or call a special election. No incumbent ran in Districts 3, 4 or 5.

Mike Buley 16,440 — 14,320 Loren Gameros

53.5% | 46.5%

Mayor. OC Registrar, Nov 9. Lead of 2,120 votes, up from 827 on election night.

Measure C (Costa Mesa business license reform) is passing 70.9% to 29.1%.

COSTA MESA · COUNCIL DISTRICTS 3, 4 AND 5

Council results

Cara Stewart 2,516 — 2,515 Daniel Morgan

District 3: one vote apart (2,516 to 2,515), too close to call. Stewart led election night (52.2%), Morgan led by 38 on Nov 7, Stewart retook the lead Nov 9. A recount is likely after certification.

Angely Andrade Vallarta 2,042 — 870 Fisher Derderian

District 4: Andrade Vallarta wins.

Kelly Brown 2,857 — 2,173 Steve Smith

District 5: Brown wins, margin 684.

PART FIVE

Special districts, incumbents and measures

How incumbents fared across Orange County, and how voters treated taxes and bonds

SPECIAL DISTRICTS

Twelve of fifteen water and special district incumbents on the ballot are winning

District	Incumbent(s)	Share	Status
Mesa Water District, Division 5	Shawn Dewane	58.4%	Winner, re-elected
Municipal Water District of OC, Division 2	Larry Dick	42.2% (next: 35.9%)	Leading
Irvine Ranch Water District, Division 5	Peer Swan	58.0%	Winner, re-elected
El Toro Water District (2 seats)	Mike Gaskins, Kathryn Freshley	45.2%, 39.1%	Winners, both re-elected
Moulton Niguel Water District (3 seats)	Bill Moorhead, Brian Parker; Trish Kelley takes the open third seat	23.9%, 19.6%, 17.6%	Winning: Moorhead, Parker, Kelley
Moulton Niguel Water District, short term (open seat)	Pat Bates; runner-up David Petty	58.7%, 29.7%	Winner, no incumbent
Midway City Sanitary District (3 seats)	Sergio Contreras, Andrew Nguyen, Mark Nguyen	30.7%, 24.5%, 23.5%	Winning, all three
Rossmoor Community Services District (2 seats)	Jo Shade	36.2%	Winning, 1st
Buena Park Library District, Division 2	Brenda Estrada	64.6%	Winner, re-elected
Trabuco Canyon Water District (3 seats)	Glenn Acosta, Mike Safranski, Edward Mandich	11.3%, 9.6%, 8.5%	Losing, all three (challengers lead with 19 to 21%)

Exception: Trabuco Canyon, where a slate (Coss, Brown, Casarietti) is sweeping all three seats. At Moulton Niguel, Director Duane Cave resigned before filing, leaving two incumbents and one open seat. Serrano WD Division 4 had no incumbent; Mesa Water Division 4 was not up.

INCUMBENTS TRAILING

Seventeen local incumbents are behind, several by a few hundred votes or less

Office	Incumbent	Leader
State Senate 36 (districtwide)	Tony Strickland (R)	Chris Duncan 50.9%, gap 6,535
Assembly 70	Tri Ta (R)	Paula Swift 51.0%, gap 2,749
NOCCCD Trustee, Area 6	Jeffrey Brown	Paulette Chaffee 28.5% vs 18.4%
Assembly 74 (districtwide)	Laurie Davies (R)	Sergio Farias 51.1%, gap 3,746
Laguna Beach USD	Dee Namba Perry	12.7%, out of the running
Santa Ana Mayor	Valerie Amezcua	Dan Shimell 45.9%, gap 3,210
Santa Ana Ward 4	Phil Bacerra	De Anda 57.1%
Trabuco Canyon WD (3 seats)	Acosta, Safranski, Mandich	Coss, Brown, Casarietti
Aliso Viejo, District 3 (short)	Garrett Dwyer	Tsaasan 51.8%, gap 101
Garden Grove, District 4	Joe Dovinh	Hieu Nguyen 37.8% vs 24.2%
Mission Viejo, District 3	Cynthia Vasquez	Zahn 54.8%
Stanton, District 1	Donald Torres	Frazier 53.5%, gap 134
Tustin Mayor	Austin Lumbard	Letitia Clark 51.0%, gap 413
Westminster Mayor	Chi Charlie Nguyen	Carlos Manzo 40.3%, gap 660
Westminster, District 1	Amy Phan West	David Johnson 50.6%

Gaps are raw votes between the leader and the incumbent as of Nov 9. SD 36 and AD 74 use the Secretary of State's districtwide count: both incumbents lead inside Orange County (Strickland 50.4%, Davies 56.8%) but trail once Los Angeles County (SD 36) and San Diego County (AD 74) are added.

LOCAL TAXES AND BONDS

Every local tax and bond in Orange County is passing except San Clemente's sales tax

Measure	Jurisdiction	What it does	Yes	Status
A	Laguna Beach Unified School District	School facilities bond (55% needed)	67.4%	Passing
B	Westminster School District	Classroom repair and school safety bond (55% needed)	68.2%	Passing
C	City of Costa Mesa	Business license tax reform, raises rates on larger businesses	70.9%	Passing
G	City of Los Alamitos	Hotel (transient occupancy) tax	67.9%	Passing
I	City of Orange	One-cent sales tax for public safety and essential services	54.7%	Passing
J	City of Orange	Hotel tax modification	59.6%	Passing
L	City of Placentia	Hotel tax	61.5%	Passing
N	City of Santa Ana	Makes the 1.5-cent sales tax permanent (no sunset)	66.5%	Passing
O	City of Westminster	City services revenue measure	62.2%	Passing
M	City of San Clemente	One-cent sales tax for natural hazards (citizens' initiative)	36.9%	Failing

Nine of ten local revenue measures are passing. Costa Mesa's Measure C, within Mesa Water's service area, carries the widest margin in the county. Non-revenue measures (D Irvine, E Laguna Beach, F Lake Forest, H Newport Beach, K Orange) are not shown.

STATEWIDE BONDS AND TAXES

Bonds pass everywhere; OC and Mesa Water split from state on tax limit measure

Measure	What it does	Statewide Yes	Orange County Yes	Mesa Water District Yes
Prop 1	$11.25 billion veterans and affordable housing bond	61.0%	52.9%	55.0%
Prop 3	Makes the high-income tax rates permanent	60.6%	50.6%	52.4%
Prop 38	$8.4 billion immunology research bond	54.2%	55.0%	53.7%
Prop 40	One-time 5% tax on billionaires	47.2%	40.7%	43.2%
Prop 41	Spending limit and audits for new state taxes	45.1%	54.9%	51.1%
Prop 42	Bans new state personal property taxes	51.6%	59.9%	56.0%
Prop 43	Two-thirds vote for local special taxes	42.7%	51.7%	48.5%

Yes above 50%: passing in that jurisdiction Yes below 50%: failing in that jurisdiction

Prop 41 (spending limit and audits) fails statewide but passes in Orange County and Mesa Water; Prop 43 (two-thirds vote for local taxes) fails statewide and in Mesa Water but passes countywide. Statewide figures are the Secretary of State's count as of Nov 9, 7:18 p.m. Orange County and Mesa Water District figures are the Registrar's Run 14 (Nov 9); Mesa Water figures are the district's precincts from the Statement of Votes by District. Props 41 and 42 are written to override Prop 40 if they pass with more votes; Prop 40 is failing statewide regardless.
